

CRAIN'S

NEW YORK BUSINESS®

EXECUTIVE MOVES

Lazard Ltd.: Tom Tuft, 62, will join the financial advisory and asset management firm as chairman of global capital markets advisory and vice chairman of U.S. investment banking in November. He is chairman of the equity capital markets group at Goldman Sachs & Co., where he has worked for more than 30 years.

The Federal Reserve Bank of New York:

Denis M. Hughes, 59, was named chairman, after serving as acting chairman since May. He had been deputy chairman since January 2007. Mr. Hughes has served as a director since 2004.

Lee Bollinger, 63, president of Columbia University, was appointed deputy chairman for the remainder of the year and was reappointed for a three-year term as director, starting Jan. 1, 2010.

Joseph R. Loring & Associates Inc.: Barry L. Maltz, 57, was promoted to chairman and chief executive at the engineering firm. He was formerly vice chairman and president.

Travel Ad Network: Cree Lawson, 35, was promoted to chairman from chief executive. He is also founder of the firm.

Vibe: Jermaine Hall, 35, was named editor in chief of the magazine and the Web site. He was most recently editor in chief of King magazine.

See EXECUTIVE MOVES on Page 26