Private Sale Of Vintage Ferraris Confirmed

Ferrari F50 (file photo)

By Marty Bernstein

There are Ferrari sales and then there are Ferrari sales! Rumors have been pervasive in the rarified air of exotic car collecting about a sale of some of the most important vintage and collectable Ferraris in the world.

This deal was been confirmed. The Ferrari's came from the world famous collection Kroymans – the Ferrari distributor in Holland now in bankruptcy and have been sold in a private transaction. Kroymans, filed for bankruptcy to the tune of $3 billion.

The deal was brokered by Thomas Hamann, chairman of the New York City Concours d'Elegance and owner of Hamann Classic Cars a specialist brokerage in rare and exotic vehicles who worked with European banks and a well known private collector. Hamann noted, "We are thrilled to be a part of the salvation of this very important collection of Vintage Ferraris"

While the dollar amount of transaction was not revealed but a search of reliable price ranges of vintage Ferrari's, such as Hagerty's Cars That Matter, indicated a sale of several millions of Euros. A partial list of Ferrari's includes:

- 250EuropaGT
- 375America
- 250 Boano
- 250 SWB Berlinetta
- 250 Testa Rossa
- 250 GTO
- 275 GTB/4 Alloy ex N.A.R.T.
- 330 GTC
